

HHHi All,

We are delighted to confirm the final venue for our big wrap up party on the Sunday night is the famous, beautiful Glasgow Fruit Market. Once the boat docks, you will be transported from the boat to your final trail in Scotland's glorious central belt and then onward to the closing party venue

	Evening	Piss Up in a Brewery (book your own accommodation in Edinburgh)*

	Afternoon	Departure and sailing North with departure deck party

* Some useful links of places to stay can be found on www.eurohash2019.com

Finally, the day has almost come when you will be able to book your cabin! We apologise for the delay in this, which was due to issues needing to be resolved during testing of the unique booking engine that has been developed to allow individual bookings. This was further exaggerated by their shutdown during Christmas and New Year.

The good news is that we will go live this month! Booking details, together with detailed instructions how to book your cabin, will be sent to you in the order that you registered - you should get an email with access details between mid and the end of February. Bookings can only be made via this link and not directly with the cruise company.

During the booking process, you will either be able to book a full 2 berth cabin (6 classes to choose from) or one or more berths in a cabin (10 classes of cabin). Details of classes are shown on the proceeding pages. Once you have booked your cabin, we will request you input your hash handle and gender into the online spreadsheet to allow people to review their new cabin mate and add your run length preferences. It is an all inclusive cruise, so all food, drink and tips are included in the cabin/berth price.

Although all spaces for the event have been sold, some places are coming available for transfer so if you know anyone interested in attending the event, we'd encourage them to register ASAP to snap up one of these transfer spaces allowing them to have free choice of cabins!

On On,

Your Eurohash Committee
